Consideration

Before the year 1913 – 1933 M.C.Y. most American owned clear – Perfected – Allodial Titles to their Property – Estate, clear of any and all liens and mortgages [Dead Pledges] until the Federal Reserve Act wherein the ‘Federal Government’ “Hypothecated” all present and future properties, assets and labors of the ‘Artificial Person’ – U.S. 14th Amendment citizen. Providing mandate for all Inferior Roman Cestui Que Vie Trusts and Escheaters to administer over the Ancestral Estates of True American Salish – Al Moroccan Heirs.

Canonum de Ius Positivum 1655 – As Roman Time is hereby rendered null and void, all claimed authority, power, right and influences derived from this system is also hereby rendered null and void.

Canonum de Ius Positivum 1861 – Realty can only exist in one Superior Trust at any time and is dependent upon the existence of an associated True Trust holding true objects and concepts as well as associated Divine Trust. Realty can never exist in an Inferior Trust.

Canonum de Ius Positivum 1539 – An Inferior Document is any document issued by an Inferior Person such as a Roman Person or Inferior Juridic Person. No Inferior Document may ever be allowed to claim superiority over a General Document, Ordinary Document, Superior Document or Supreme Document.

Canonum de Ius Positivum 1957 – All Estates formed under Roman Law are by definition formed under Testamentary Trusts, whether or not such structure or status is acknowledged. Therefore, all Estates belong to Inferior Trusts.

Canonum de Ius Positivum 1956 – By definition, an Inferior Trust is inferior to a Superior Trust. Therefore, an Inferior Trust can never hold Real Property being first right of use above all others. Therefore, any such claims of superior title, real property by any Inferior Trust defies all norms of logic and reason and are automatically null and void from the beginning.

Canonum de Ius Positivum 1920 - Any claim that an Inferior roman Trust possesses superior standing and rights of ownership compared to a Superior Trust, or True Trust is an absurdity against Divine Law, Natural Law and Positive Law and therefore is null and void from the beginning, including any associated covenants, deeds and agreements concerning property rights and lessor trusts.

Canonum de Ius Positivum 2057 – Any Administrator or Executor that refuses to immediately dissolve a Cestui Que (Vie) Trust, upon a Person establishing their status and competency, is guilty of fraud and fundamental breach of their fiduciary duties requiring their immediate removal and punishment.

Canonum de Ius Positivum 1848 – When the rightful owner of certain property is also a holder of an instrument, then such possession of the document also represents their proof of ownership, consent and agreement to the validity of the rules by which the instrument was issued, as well as surety to any associated obligations, without physical need to demonstrate possession.

CHEATERS, or ESCHEATORS, “a cheater came to signify a fraudulent person, and thence the verb to cheat was derived. Wharton.” – Black’s Law Dictionary 4th Edition Page. 300

ESCHEAT, “In feudal law, Escheat Is an obstruction of the course of descent, and consequent of determination of the tenure, by some unforeseen contingency, in which case the land naturally results back, by a kind of reversion, to the original grantor, or lord of the fee.” 2 B1. Comm. 15; Wallace v. Harmstad, 44 Pa. 501; Marshall v. Lovelass, 1 N.C. 445; Kavanaugh v. Cohoes Power and Light Corporation, 114 Misc. 590, 187 N.Y.S. 216, 231; State v. Phoenix Say. Bank & Trust Co., 60 Ariz. 138, 132 P.2d 637, 638.

“In American Law, Escheat signifies a reversion of property to the state in consequence of a want of any individual competent to inherit. The state is deemed to occupy the place and hold the right of the feudal lord.” See 4 Kent, Comm. 423, 424. Center v. Kramer, 112 Ohio St. 269, 147 N.E. 602, 601; In re O’Conner’s Estate, 126 Neb. 182, 252 N.W. 826; Braun v. McPherson, 277 Mich. 396, 269 N.W. 211, 212.

“Escheat at feudal law was the right of the lord of a fee to re-enter upon the same when it became vacant by the extinction of the blood of the tenant. The word ‘escheat’ in this country, at the present time, merely indicates the preferable right of the state to an estate left vacant, and without their being any one in existence able to make claim thereto.” 29 Am. Dec. 232, note.

United Nations Declaration on the Right of Indigenous People

Concerned that indigenous peoples have suffered from historic injustices as a result of, inter alia, their colonization and dispossession of their lands, territories and resources, thus preventing them from exercising, in particular, their right to development in accordance with their own needs and interest.

Recognizing the urgent need to respect and promote the inherent rights of indigenous peoples which derive from their political, economic and social structures and from their cultures, spiritual traditions, histories and philosophies, especially their right to their lands, territories and resources.

Convinced that control by indigenous peoples over developments affecting them and their lands, territories and resources will enable them to maintain and strengthen their institutions, cultures and traditions, and to promote their development in accordance with their aspirations and needs.

Article 8

1. Indigenous peoples and individuals have the right not to be subjected to forced assimilation or destruction of their culture.
2. States shall provide effective mechanisms for prevention of, and redress for:

(b) Any action which has the aim or effect of dispossessing them of their lands, territories or resources;

Article 10

Indigenous peoples shall not be forcibly removed from their lands or territories. No relocation shall take place without the free, prior and informed consent of the indigenous peoples concerned and after agreement on fair and just compensation and, where possible, with the option of return.

Article 25

Indigenous peoples have the right to maintain and strengthen their distinctive spiritual relationship with their traditionally owned or otherwise occupied and used lands, territories, waters, and coastal seas and other resources and to uphold their responsibilities to future generations in this regard.

Article 26

1. Indigenous peoples have the right to the lands, territories and resources which they have traditionally owned, occupied or otherwise used or acquired.
2. Indigenous peoples have the right to own, use, develop and control the lands, territories and resources that they possess by reason of traditional ownership or otherwise traditional occupation or use, as well as those which they have otherwise acquired.

3. States shall give legal recognition and protection to those lands, territories and resources. Such recognition shall be conducted with due respect to the customs, traditions and land tenure systems of the indigenous peoples concerned.

Article 28

1. Indigenous peoples have the right to redress, by means that can include restitution or, when this is not possible, just, fair and equitable compensation, for the lands, territories and resources which they have traditionally owned or otherwise occupied or used, and which have been confiscated, taken, occupied, used or damaged without their free, prior and informed consent.
2. Unless otherwise freely agreed upon by the peoples concerned, compensation shall take the form of lands, territories and resources equal in quality, size and legal status or of monetary compensation or other appropriate redress.

Letter from George Washington to Muhammed Ibn Abdullab—Sultan of Morocco

City of New York December 1, 1789

"Great and Magnanimous Friend,

Since the date of the letter which the late congress, by their President, addressed to your Imperial Majesty, The United States of America have thought proper to change their government and institute a new one, agreeable to the Constitution, of which I have the honor, herewith, to enclose a copy.

The Time necessarily employed in this arduous Task, and the Derangements occasioned by so great, though peaceable a Revolution, will apologize, and account for your Majesty's not having received those regular Advices, and Marks of Attention, from the United States, which the Friendship and Magnanimity of your Conduct, towards them, afforded Reason to expect.

The United States, having unanimously appointed me to the supreme executive Authority, in this Nation, your Majesty's Letter of the 17th August 1788, which, by Reason of the Dissolution of the late Government, remained unanswered, has been delivered to me. I have also received the Letters which your Imperial Majesty has been so kind as to write, in Favor of the United States, to the Bashaws of Tunis and Tripoli, and I present to you the sincere acknowledgments, and Thanks of the United States, for this important Mark of your Friendship for them.

We greatly regret that the hostile Disposition of those Regencies, towards this Nation, who have never injured them, is not to be removed, on Terms in our Power to comply with. Within our Territories there are no Mines, either of Gold, or Silver, and this young Nation, just recovering from the Waste and Desolation of a long War, have not, as yet, had Time to acquire Riches by Agriculture and Commerce. But our Soil is bountiful, and our People industrious; and we have Reason to flatter ourselves, that we shall gradually become useful to our Friends.

The Encouragement which your Majesty has been pleased, generously, to give to our Commerce with your Dominions; the Punctuality with which you have caused the Treaty with us to be observed, and the just and generous Measures taken, in the Case of Captain Proctor, made a deep Impression on the United States, and confirm their Respect for, and Attachment to your Imperial Majesty.

It gives me Pleasure to have this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty that, while I remain at the Head of this Nation, I shall not cease to promote every Measure that may conduce to the Friendship and Harmony, which so happily subsist between your Empire and them, and shall esteem myself happy in every Occasion of convincing your Majesty of the high Sense (which in common with the whole Nation) I entertain of the Magnanimity, Wisdom, and Benevolence of your Majesty.

In the Course of the approaching Winter, the national Legislature (which is called by the former Name of Congress) will assemble, and I shall take Care that Nothing be omitted that may be necessary to cause the Correspondence, between our Countries, to be maintained and conducted in a Manner agreeable to your Majesty, and satisfactory to all the Parties concerned in it.

May the Almighty bless your Imperial Majesty, our great and magnanimous Friend, with his constant Guidance and Protection. Written at the City of New York the first Day of December 1789."

—George Washington
